

Living and the Gospel! God Theory \xrightarrow{to} Reality

- The best way I've learned to share (present) Jesus to someone else is through the way I live my life. Becoming like Jesus and imitating what I see from his life.

- I've learned the ultimate goal of our instruction should be to teach others the way of Jesus by what we do and say. (see Acts 1:1)

- We have to believe that everything matters to the Father! All that we do is important and effects what happens in the kingdom!

(see Matthew 16:19) I will give you the keys of heaven's kingdom realm to forbid on earth that which is forbidden in heaven, and to release on earth that which is released in heaven." #tpt

- The scripture above is why we when we pray for the sick, they heal. Why the demons listen and have to leave when we worship - because when Jesus enters into the room THEY MUST GO! We have to believe this is true. THIS IS OUR GOD! Jesus is enthroned upon our praises. (see Psalms 22:3).

- Ultimately, I believe when it comes down to expanding the kingdom - the greatest growth you could possibly achieve is when you understand the kingdom principle that the lower you go, the higher you can reach. The art of laying down your life is one of the most prized and cherished goals because that is exactly what Jesus did! (Revelations 13:8 ...he was the lamb that was slain before the foundation of the world)

Before you were ever born, the Father knew about you. He knew one day He would have to purchase you.

• God thought that His life laid down was worth your life forever and the life of every person you see or come in contact with.

• If we were honest right now each and every one of us would say that we have thought:

1. I am not good enough
2. I can't measure up to anything
3. I am useless
4. My efforts are pointless
5. I don't even see a point in doing " "

Revelation on the way to school

Genesis 22 The Message (MSG)

2 After all this, God tested Abraham. God said, "Abraham!"

"Yes?" answered Abraham. "I'm listening."

2 He said, "Take your dear son Isaac whom you love and go to the land of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I'll point out to you."

3-5 Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey. He took two of his young servants and his son Isaac. He had split wood for the burnt offering. He set out for the place God had directed him. On the third day he looked up and saw the place in the distance. Abraham told his two young servants, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I are going over there to worship; then we'll come back to you."

6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and gave it to Isaac his son to carry. He carried the flint and the knife. The two of them went off together.

7 Isaac said to Abraham his father, "Father?"

"Yes, my son."

"We have flint and wood, but where's the sheep for the burnt offering?"

8 Abraham said, "Son, God will see to it that there's a sheep for the burnt offering." And they kept on walking together.

9-10 They arrived at the place to which God had directed him. Abraham built an altar. He laid out the wood. Then he tied up Isaac and laid him on the wood. Abraham reached out and took the knife to kill his son.

11 Just then an angel of God called to him out of Heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!"

"Yes, I'm listening."

12 "Don't lay a hand on that boy! Don't touch him! Now I know how fearlessly you fear God; you didn't hesitate to place your son, your dear son, on the altar for me."

13 Abraham looked up. He saw a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. Abraham took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 Abraham named that place God-Yireh (God-Sees-to-It). That's where we get the saying, "On the mountain of God, he sees to it."

15-18 The angel of God spoke from Heaven a second time to Abraham: "I swear—God's sure word!—because you have gone through with this, and have not refused to give me your son, your dear, dear son, I'll bless you—oh, how I'll bless you! And I'll make sure that your children flourish—like stars in the sky! like sand on the beaches! And your descendants will defeat their enemies. All nations on Earth will find themselves blessed through your descendants because you obeyed me."
